

Third Person

Israel / 2015 / Documentary 55 min
Hebrew, Spanish and Arabic with English subtitles

Suzan was born intersex - with both male and female sex organs. When she was 5 months old, her parents decided she would be a female. She learnt about it only at the age of 35. Ofer was born intersexual too, but his parents decided against surgery and accepted him the way he was born. Is there a right to be Intersex? Most people don't think so. Suzan and Ofer are on a mission to change it.

"Third Person" is a shocking film. the director reveals the enormous pain involved in the denial and lies surrounding the hybrid gender identity of intersex babies"

Neta Alexander, Haaretz newspaper

"Third Person sticks in your throat. A quality film which is not easy to watch"

Doron Brosh, Maariv newspaper

"a story small and big, personal and public, sad and joyous all at once"

Alma Biblash, Local Call Magazine

"A film worth watching!"

Nir Kipnis, Globes Magazine
